

NEWS FROM THE KEESEVILLE FREE LIBRARY JUNE 2025 VOL 3 ISSUE 6

"THE ONLY THING YOU ABSOLUTELY HAVE TO KNOW IS THE LOCATION OF THE LIBRARY." -Albert Einstein

A Note From Our Director

"Color our World" is the theme of this year's summer reading program. Our weekly program will be on Wednesdays from July 9-August 6 from 9:30-11:00 a.m. for children ages 6-10. We will be offering fun activities all summer long for all ages. Stop by the library for more information or to register.

-Robyn

Author Book Talk

Robyn Schumer, author of the memoir "Bones", will join us June 13 at 6 pm for an engaging discussion of her book.

"Bones" is the tragicomic, roller coaster story of Robyn's lifelong battle with—and triumph over—a crippling eating disorder.

If you are interested in attending, I strongly encourage you to read the book ahead of time, however it's not necessary.

We have two copies of the book available at the library.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

If you are like me, you don't remember too much from your 8th grade Civics class, and how many of you remember the first three words of the Constitution? * John McMahon, Associate Professor of Political Science at SUNY Plattsburgh will give a mini refresher course on the U.S. Constitution and how our government works. Join us on July 9th at 6:00 so you can become one of the "informed Citizenry". (*We the people)

ARTIST OF THE MONTH

Andrea Knight was a genuinely gifted photographer who created hundreds of beautiful pictures that celebrated the beauty of the North Country. Her vision and imaginative spirit gave unique perspectives to her work; for example, she rotated views of shorelines vertically, to produce mesmerizing totem images. All prints have been donated by friends of Andrea. 100% of the proceeds go directly toward library programs.

Wish List

Our need for personal hygiene products continues. Last month we gave out over 300 items. Most needed are deodorant, shampoo, lotion, and Q-tips.

MUSIC IN THE LIBRARY

The final concert in our Music in the Library series* will be held on June 12th at the Ausable Valley Grange and feature the Scott Hopkins Trio (and friends). The trio's repertoire includes originals and roots music with Bluegrass, Blues, Jazz, Country, Latin, and Americana as influences. The group is proud to perform any genre of music they enjoy and are very happy to connect that broad love of music with audiences!

*Concerts will resume in September
