

The Lower Adirondack Regional Center for History
presents

“The First Invasion of Canada: Heroic Failure”

Speaker: Brian O'Connor

Friday, September 11, 2026
7 p.m.

Hancock House Museum
6 Moses Circle, Ticonderoga

Invading Canada with high hopes, America's dreams of a 14th colony dissolved in 1776. Why? Why did Canadians see the Patriots as invaders and not rescuers, as expected?

What role was played by familiar figures like Benedict Arnold, Ethan Allen and Benjamin Franklin?

Programs are held in the lower-level program room at the Hancock House Museum and are free to attend, unless otherwise noted.

Donations are appreciated. Questions? Call

518-585-7868 or via e-mail to:

larchny@bridgepoint1.com

